A N S W E R

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The Answer of A. Hart Etchison and E. Hart Etchison, partners doing business as M. R. Etchison & Son, to the Bill of Complaint of Melvin F. Schwearing, Administrator of the Goods and Chattels of Claude G. Miller, late of Frederick County, deceased, against them and others in this Court exhibited, respectfully shows:

FIRST: That they lack information and knowledge of the matters, facts and information contained in the First, Second and Fourth paragraphs thereof and therefore deny them.

SECOND: That they admit that part of paragraph Third thereof which alleges M. R. Etchison & Son provided the burial of the decedent at the expense of Six Hundred Eighty-Seven Dollars and Forty-three Cents ($687.43), with interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum after thirty (30) days, and that they did also bury the decedent's wife, with an unpaid balance of Three Hundred Thirty-three Dollars and Forty-five Cents ($333.45), with interest as aforesaid; but that they lack information and knowledge of the matters, facts and information contained in the remainder of paragraph Third and hence deny them.

THIRD: That this Defendant consents and desires that your Honorable Court may pass such a Decree as to it may seem proper and just in the premises.

And as in duty bound, etc.
